

Seyed Mohammad Moghimi is Professor of Management at Department of Public Administration, University of Tehran, IRAN. His most important expertise and interests include Islamic Management, Public Administration and Entrepreneurship. His most remarkable scientific activities include publishing 120 scientific papers in well-known journals, publishing 29 books, conducting 34 projects in national and organizational levels, supervisor of more 20 Ph.D. and postdoctoral dissertations, participation in many international conferences and representing over 30 papers in universities of Spain, Switzerland, Germany, France, Greece, Malaysia and Iran in Persian, Arabic and English languages. He cooperates with many journals like Islamic Management Journal as Editor in Chief, Director-in-Charge and Editorial Board Member. Also, he works with many organizations as advisor and he has been executive manager and CEO of several institutes and dean of colleges. He has been awarded Outstanding paper entitled “Public sector managers and entrepreneurship in Islamic Republic of Iran” Published in Journal of Management Development in the 2010 Emerald Literati Awards. Since 2010, he is acting as UNESCO Chair in Entrepreneurship (UCE).